Dedication

"Honor to those whose words and deeds thus help us in our daily needs." The character of a man is revealed by the way he spends the time that is his life. It is to a man whose moments are lived not for himself, but for a greater purpose that this book is dedicated. Whether it is literary or athletic, senior or eighth grade, he is on hand for each activity, always striving to do the most good for the largest number. Without a doubt, he is one of the factors which has made our school what it is today. It is with admiration and sincere thanks that we dedicate the 1953 Hurricane to our principal,

We, the Senior Class of 1953, being of sound mind and realizing that we have many valuable assets which may be a basis to those we leave behind, do hereby make, publish and declare this, our last will and testament:

Lynn Carmany wills her ability in Home Economics to anyone who will use it in the right way.
John Shupe wills his position as center on the football team to Boyd Comer.
Hazel Hester wills her locker — number 150 — to Pauline Combs.
Shirley Shannan wills to Mary Lyn Stamper her "Royal" Typewriter in typing class.
Violet Widener and Ronald Hurt will their ability to get along to any couple who can acquire such an achievement.
Christine Caley wills her ability to cooperate with Miss Pediga to Shirley Musser.
Patsy Barker wills her seat beside Dale Dixon in Charal to anyone who can tolerate him.
Barbara Mercer wills her ability to get along with the faculty at M. H. S. to C. M. Peavler.
Mary Lindsey wills her typewriter to Sandra Graseclase in hopes it will write faster for her.
Barbara Burnside wills the good times she has had in her short time in Marian to any new transfer student.
Martha Lindsey wills to Carral Murray her seat in Miss Pauline Anderson's English class if she is lucky enough to get it.
Marie Blessing wills her SENIOR year to any student conscientious enough to stick to school.
Shirley Davis wills her "straight A's" in government to Christine Lael in hopes she won't have to use them.
Rasenell Rymer and Jane Burchett leave their seats in Carrier's to their sisters, Martha and Priscilla, in hopes they will carry out their motto, "One for Bath and Bath for One."
Violet Shelton wills her theme song, "Smile Awhile" to the whole "kit and kabaadlee!"
Christine Clark leaves her glasses to Annie Thomas so she won't have to peer at Mr. Mac when he hits the roof.
Becky Vandergriff leaves her "boats and saddle" to Loretta Crewsey so she will not fall from her seat in government when the Hurricane blows.
Peggy Cullap leaves her A's in shorthand and government to anyone having the sense not to try to make them.
Mary Repass wills to her sister, Elizabeth, her special seat in Phys. Ed. — the bench!
Martha Shupe leaves her love for singing and music to Shirley Horne.
Frances Ward wills her place as the only girl to take solid geometry and trigonometry to any girl fool-hardy enough.
Atha Parker wills her personality to Jay Greer and Sylvia Vernon in hopes that they can improve it.
Kathleen Anderson leaves her great desire to cook to Gertrude Shumate, hoping her luck won't fail and her cakes won't fall.
Katherine Umbarger leaves to Alma Prater her seat in shorthand and her seat in typing to Betty Jo Powell.
Geraldine Janes leaves her privilege of being late to class to Elaine McKinnon but hopes she won't use "crutches" as an excuse.
Bill Halsey wills his parking place to Mr. Mac.
Paul Eblen wills his right to walk out of assembly first to the next S. C. A. President.
Peggy Smith leaves her position as head majorette to Jackie Haulsee.
Ruby A. Hopkins and Catherine Price will their typewriters to Betty Sheets and Minnie Price, hoping they can do better to develop the skill of typing without too many errors.
Doris Pennington leaves her giggles to any junior who has the nerve to use them and she hopes he will enjoy them.
Joyce Barr wills her position on the basketball team to Edwina Richardson.
Molly Testerman leaves her position on the basketball team to Carral Murray.
Jean Rogers wills her breakfast doughnuts to her brother, Jae Bill.
Florence Fray leaves her lass of sleep and circles under her eyes to Anne Eller.
Abe Lincoln leaves his parking place out front to Clayborne Gwyn. May he leave it vacant during annual work time.
Kendall Hawkins leaves his position as co-captain on the football team to George Thompson.
Helen Morgan leaves her 99 on Mr. Mac's government exam to Margaret Williams.
Charlene Wassum leaves her position as MARIONETTE News Editor to any student who wants lots of work as well as fun.
Nellie and Charlie Blackwell will their example of a perfect senior couple to Gale Martin and Dale Dixon.
Bobbie Lee Rankin wills her ability to write poetry during geometry to Lester Hall.
Dan Thampson wills his crew cut to Bob Williams.
Mary Anne Atkins wills her "always" clean saddle shoes to Martha Buchanan.
Doris Kegley wills her shortness to Carolyn Lambert.
Mary Ann Ingram wills her gray hairs gained from working on the annual to Jenny Jo Pruner.
Minnie Williams wills her rhyming dictionary (mental) to the incoming senior reporter.
Robin Scott wills his seat in detention hall to Dave Johnson.
Sherman Bales wills his love of football to Billy Greenwood.
Carroll Richardson wills his patience in English Class to the Class of '54.
Nancy Bentley wills her ability to be late to every class to anybody who can get by with it!
To Mr. Gillespie, we leave our plans and ambitions in hopes we won't disappoint him too badly.
To Mr. McDonald we leave our apologies for our first impression of government with the hope that we live up to his ideals of the future governing citizens of America.
To Mrs. Linkaus, Mr. Wilkinsan, and Mr. Smythe, our Senior sponsors, we leave our thanks and gratitude for their hours of work and helpfulness in our senior year.

Witnessed my hand and seal, to this, our Last Will and testament on this the eighteenth day of March, 1953.

"I Remember Mama"

"Make him well again, Mama. Please. You can do it." Such was the faith in the gentle, understanding mother in the two-act play, "I Remember Mama," the story of the discouragements and triumphs of an immigrant family living in America in the early twentieth century.

This Senior Class presentation was under the direction of Mr. C. A. Wilkinson and Bobbie Lee Rankin, student director. The cast consists of Katrin, Jean Rogers; Mama, Shirley Shannon; Papa, Eller Burton; Dagmar, Nellie Blackwell; Christine, Marie Blessing; Mr. Hyde, Leon BeVillie; Nels, Dan Thompson; Aunt Trina, Barbara Burnside; Aunt Sigrid, Geraldine Jones; Aunt Jenny, Helen Morgan; Uncle Chris, Jimmy Brisco; A Woman, Florence Fray; Mr. Thorkelson, Bob Crockett; Dr. Johnson, Abe Lincoln; Arne, Carroll Richardson; Nurses, Martha Lindsey and Anne Wolfenden; Soda Clerk, Kendall Hawkins; Madeline, Lynn Cormany; Dorothy Schiller, Mary Anne Atkins; Florence Dana Moorehead, Barbara Mercer; and Bell Boy, Harold Slemph.

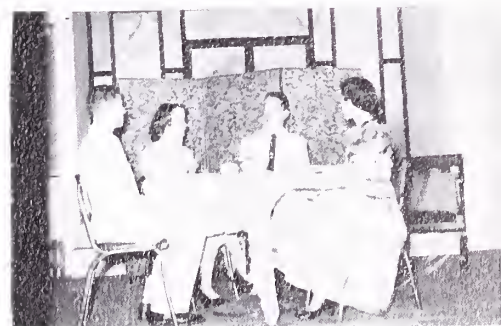

"Lost Horizon"

Imagine the adventure four kidnapped plane passengers would have at a mysterious lamasary, Shangri-La, where people live to be 150 years old, yet look no older than 30 years.

These adventures came to life in the Junior Class production of "Lost Horizon," December 4, 1952. The directors were Miss Pauline Anderson and Mr. Mack Sturgill.

The cast consisted of Claybarne Gwyn as "Glory" Canway, British consul in India; Jenny Ja Pruner as Helen Briac, the English girl in the lamasary; Johnny Jahnstan as Mallison, British vice-consul in India; Rannie Cox as Barnard, an American; Margaret Anderson as Miss Brinklaw, a missionary; Louise Genga as La-Tsen, an exquisite Chinese girl; Bobby Simans as Chang, an elderly Chinese man; Charles Seaver as the High Lama of Shangri-La; Glenda Stane as Tashi, a Tibetan girl; Willie Pugh as Ai-Ling, a Chinese serving girl; Martha Buchanan, Mildred Robbins, Paul Greer and George Thampson as Myra, Elizabeth, Wyland, and Rutherford, British couples in the prologue and epilogue. Other members of the Junior Class served on committees.

A Backward Glance

School bells beckoned and from our favorite spot at the beach or from our lazy luxury of sleeping late and worrying whether the Dodgers or the Yankees were going to win the pennant, we reluctantly ambled back to school. The schedule of classes leveled down to a good beginning; we were impressed by our new faculty, when — bang! — the Rich Valley Steers dampened our enthusiasm to the tune of 19-6.

However, Marion's hard-fighting eleven, smarting from its first defeat and coached by Mr. Charles Cooper, tumbled Graham High of Bluefield and Chilhowie High by an identical score of 21-0 to revive our spirits.

On October 11 Marion snapped Tazewell's 21 consecutive victory record by handing them a 14-8 upset, the most exciting game of the year.

Steamed up by these three victories the "Hurricane" smashed William King's perfect record on October 24, edging them 7-6 in a savagely-fought battle. To close the season the "Big Reds" defeated Pocahontas 13-12 to make it six out of nine.

All during the season Marion's Scarlet Hurricane, to quote its coach, "showed more courage than any team I've ever coached." They toppled the top teams and played excellent ball.

The annual homecoming excitement grew with the variety show on Thursday night, October 30, the pep rally, bonfire and snake dance. Senor Cooper was master of ceremonies and every one agreed that "Fiesta" was one of the best in a long line of good homecoming shows. Hallowe'en continued the surge of "M.H.S. spirit."

Faces dropped on Saturday when Saltville trounced the Marion team 33-6. There are some things we'd like to forget, but one thing we'll remember is that Queen Molly Testerman reigned over the Homecoming Dance that night with her court: Louise Genga, Mary Ann Ingram, Helen Morgan, and Atha Parker.

Much excitement was created by the presidential election on November 4. Eisenhower and Stevenson buttons were a part of everyone's apparel.

In spite of vigorous campaigning even at M. H. S., we all feel that "Ike" will make a very capable executive.

On December 4th, we watched with pride as the juniors presented their class play, "Lost Horizon." Everyone commented on the excellent performances of the entire cast.

Days were checked off on the calendar as Christmas vacation approached. Highlighting the holiday festivities was the Winter Wonderland Dance. The Y's chose as their "royal" couple Helen Morgan and Franklin Murray.

On January 5 we came to school with thoughts of exams hovering in the future. After this mental strain we welcomed the thought of the Valentine Dance on February 14. Atha Parker was chosen queen by the F. H. A. and reigned with her court composed of Louise Blevins, Reba Catron, Peggy Cullop, Shirley Davis, Doris Kegley and Molly Testerman.

Early in November on the heels of Ike's election, basketball season had been ushered in. Near the end of February Marion's "classy" five had overcome the opposition, gaining a 22-2 game record to top District VII in regular season play.

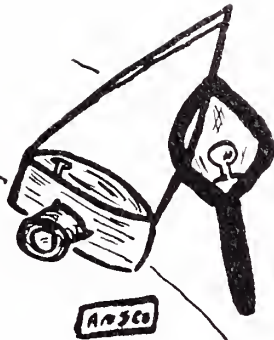

March 7 was a great day for the Marion quintet as they defeated Honaker to capture the District VII Tournament Championship, thus enabling them to compete in the Group II State Tournament at V. P. I.

Something we all hoped for, but few dared to believe, happened in Blacksburg the week-end of March 12-14. William Fleming of Roanoke, Harrisonburg, and finally the "Green Wave" of Clintwood came down with "Scarlet" fever, and Marion fans roared as the trophy was presented to Robert Hankins, Marion captain.

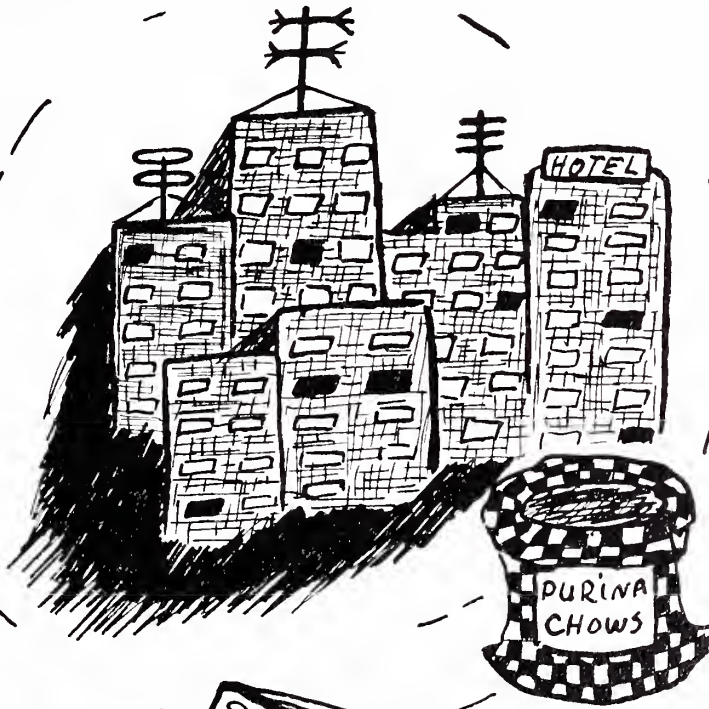

The cast of "The Red Key" competed with other schools in the District One-Act Play Contest at Grundy on March 14. They were successful in obtaining a distinguished rating, thus giving them an opportunity to present their play in state competition at Charlottesville.

We are looking forward to future events, including the Senior Play, "I Remember Mama," to be presented April 30 and May 1. The Junior-Senior Prom will be a highlight of those days and, of course, the Seniors will be looking with delight and regret to that great event on June 1, Graduation Day.

WHAT MAKES A CHAMPION ATHLETE?

IS IT CONDITIONING. . . coaching . . . teamwork . . . physique . . . sportsmanship . . . competitive spirit . . . or just plain honest-to-goodness athletic skill?

We don't pretend to be athletic experts, because our job is to manufacture high quality textile products. But as sporting fans we think it would be safe to say that an athletic champion is the result of all these fine qualities.

We know that it has taken a combination of great leadership, manufacturing know-how, careful planning, employee loyalty, and skilled teamwork to make Burlington Mills a champion in the textile industry. The Company's many accomplishments and progressive growth during the past 27 years are well known. We are proud of this record and equally proud of our 32,000 employees who have worked together with real team spirit as members of the Burlington team.

It's a fact that Burlington's fine fabrics, hosiery and other textile products are truly "Woven Into the Life of America" — just as every Burlington plant is woven into the life of its own community.

Dear Lewis,

Of all my years in Marion High School I have really enjoyed this one to the utmost. Not only have I enjoyed football, basketball and cheerleading but just the fact of being with you has made it a happy and glorious time!

With your sweet personality, sincereness, and politeness—especially, I am sure you'll go a long way and succeed. I think you're one of the top best boys at M.H.S. and I know you'll continue your good ways.

Didn't we have fun at the first square dances and think of all the places we've been—there wasn't a sad moment at all!

As I have said before I know I'll never forget this special year. It will live in my memories forever!
